

SEND WORD: Save the USPS Edition

Here are some of the resources shared during the August 20, 2020, edition of SEND WORD, hosted by Scuppernong Books.

Upcoming Events

August 22, Save the Post Office Saturday Day of Action

Sponsored by MoveOn

savethepostoffice.net

August 25, National Day of Action to #SaveThePostOffice

Sponsored by US Mail Not 4 Sale and the American Postal Workers Union

actionnetwork.org/event_campaigns/save-the-postal-service-aug-25-day-of-action

Organizations & Information

US Mail Not for Sale

Resources and data, from the American Postal Workers Union and the National Association of Letter Carriers

usmailnotforsale.org

Stand By Your Mail

Additional resources for action, including petitions—scroll down to the Take Action section, & see the About page for some good talking points

standbyyourmail.org

Save the Post Office

See Reports for reprints of USPS-led and other studies on the processing and timeliness of mail

savethepostoffice.com

American Postal Workers Union

News, actions to take, and support for postal workers

apwu.org

This August 12 letter to Postmaster Louis DeJoy from US Senators has lots of solid info:

baldwin.senate.gov/imo/media/doc/F8AD141754ECA3E2F2F031F3D10BB2FB.081220_uspsfirstclassmail.pdf

And this July 31 Twitter thread from @USPostOffice911 offers some good, brief background:

twitter.com/USPostOffice911/status/1289235982366040066

Folks to Contact

For Senators' and House members' phone numbers and mailing addresses, both DC and regional, enter your zip code at contactingcongress.org.

Rep. Gerald E. Connolly (D-Va.), is chair of the House Subcommittee on Government Operations, whose oversight includes the post office

DC Office Phone: (202) 225-1492

Fairfax District Office Phone: (703) 256-3071

Prince William District Office Phone: (571) 408-4407

Resistbot makes it easy to email your representatives. (But don't forget to call/send mail as well!)

resist.bot/news/2020/04/12/save-the-post-office

Long live the USPS!